CLASS PROPHECY

As a full moon comes up over the water at Rabbit Hollow Beach the Class of '55 is gathering at J. D. Brewer's Hotel, The Blue Moon, for a reunion after being separated for ten years, and I'll bet a palmist then couldn't have guessed that they would turn out to be what they are tonight.

Take Ronnie Beauchamp for instance. He liked working for J. E. Ellerbe Civil Engineers so well he stayed with it to become president of the firm.

As you all know, W. G. Bodsford talked a lot about boxing in high school. Well, he finally reached his highest ambition the other day by taking the championship from Rocky Marciano by a knock out at Madison Square Garden.

Fred Herman who is now a pilot for Piedmont Airlines had Audrey Kinney and Gail Cornelius as passengers on the return trip from Paris, where they have been modeling the latest fashions.

Sam Headen finally acquired that bowlegged walk after ten years on his ranch in Texas. Did you know that he recently discovered uranium on his ranch and is rolling in money?

Karlene McBride is there driving a cadillac and guess the color---Pink! She can afford it now that she is the secretary to the dentist of Lewisville.

By the way if you need any mechanical work done on your car, Billy Millsaps and Floyd Mock own and operate a modern garage in Pfafftown. They repair any make, any model.

Paige Jones just returned from Atlantic City where she was crowned "Miss America". We are glad to have her with us again.

Barney Shore had so much trouble with State Patrolmen when he was in school, he decided to quit trying to beat the law and join them. Drive carefully going home boys, because he is after you now.

Jo Ann Needham, who always had so much to say, now has her own radio program. Be sure and listen for her every morning at nine.

Nelson Huffman gave up his position as pitcher with the New York Yankees to become Manager of the Yadkin County River Rats.

Bill Slater now owns a swanky Night Club in Lewisville and employs Betty Hester and Jo Ann Craft as singers.

Shirley Messer is now Driver Trainer for county schools. She should be well qualified; it took her two years to get her driver's license.

Peyton Foster, who became American Farmer after finishing high school, now owns one of the finest dairy farms in the state located on the Dull Road.

David Todd, who always liked hunting so well, just came back from Africa where he hunted big game and brought back some very nice trophies.

Pat Speas has just completed a tour of the United States and Canada entertaining large crowds with her piano concerts.

Rachel Sowers returned to Lewisville School to teach home economics in the spot where she was once a student.

Spencer Greene is doing very well for himself. He has taken over managerial duties of Brookberry Farm.

Harold Spaugh had so much fun in the Calf Scramble we had in school that he decided to be a cowboy and is now performing in wild west rodeos.

Eleanor Dalton has now reopened the West Bend Academy after graduating from College and a couple of year's of teaching at Lewisville.

Charlie Hicks just added Craft's Super Market to his chain of super markets located in all forty-eight states.

Roxie Foster, Geraldine Rupard and Marie Reid are going to be trying for the late model stock car racing championship at Bowman Gray Stadium this year. Boys you may be able to learn something by watching them so take in the races.

Lillian Tester has taken Walt Disney's place drawing cartoons. We should now have some good reading in the Sunday Funnies.

Fashions created by Peggie Edwards and Dot Hensley rival those from Paris. Christian Dior had better watch those hemlines!

Harriet Gilyard always wanted to travel so she is working her way to China on a cattle boat.

Oneta Plunkett emcees her own T. V. Show "Lulu's Hour" which features young talent from Lewisville School.

Walker Redding now operates a machine shop in Lewisville where he manufactures left-hand monkey wrenches, horse shoe strings, and things along that line.

Bobby Ketner recently tested a Jet Plane for the Navy Officials. Who designed it? Why Neal Harper, of coruse. His secretary is that cute little girl who used to be Lou Ann McKinney.

Ruth Dalton is assistant manager of the "Bumpum and Bangum" Taxi Cab Service owned by Edgar Miller. Watch out, boys, Edgar is driving one of the cabs. As you know Robert Dalton spent a lot of his time out at Staley's on 421 when he was in school. He liked it so well, he bought the place and is now operating in a big way. Pay him a visit sometime.

John Hancock who drove the Activity Bus so efficiently decided to make a career of bus driving and is now driving for Greyhound.

Johnny Johnson learned the culinery art from his father and now has a restaurant in New York that has become World famous for its fine foods.

Dell Pfaff who could never resist candy now operates the "Sticky Fingers" Candy Shop located on Main Street in Lewisville.

Helen Lyerly who is remembered for super acting in plays given at school, has just returned from California where she starred in several movies.

Fred Mock decided that it was too dry to make money farming and is now co-starred with Helen in "Julius Caesar."

W. S. Reich, I always figured as a pretty smart fellow, and now he is president of General Motors and lives in Detroit.

J. E. Shepherd has just returned from South America where he completed a Civil Engineering project for the Government and used his high school Spanish.

As you all know Pat Roberson loved to dance and has danced her way into a studio of her own in Hawaii where she teaches the hula.

What became of Monroe Jones, and Jack Messer? Well, they have enlarged their garbage route now the largest in the South with a super garbage-disposal plant located in West Bend.

Well, here I am and there you are, and here's hoping we'll meet again after another ten years here at J. D.'s "Blue Moon."

JACK MESSER

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the 1955 Senior Class of Lewisville High School, being competent and lawfully aware, do hereby declare this document to be our Last Will and Testament:

"Sig" Miller wishes to leave to "Tink" Cline, his immense earthquaking stride. Keep this marvelous inheritance under control, Tink.

Johnny Doub, you have the honor of receiving the key to John Doub's store as bequeathed by Fred Herman. Remember though, Johnny, Fred was really on the ball.

Sam Headen says that he sincerely hopes Richard Harper may pick up his knack for being a lady's man. Nice job, huh Richard?

Larry Jennings, do you think you can wheel that cool '40 Ford of Charlie Hicks? He says, if you will be especially careful, that you may use his precious machine.

Barney Shore says, that if you will keep it in the family, Buddy Shore, you may chauffeur that hot Chevrolet. Handle those "gone Hollywoods" with care, Buddy; and remember this is North Carolina, not Hollywood.

Upon you, Reece Kirkman and Donald Spaugh, has been bestowed the ability to keep the classroom rocking, as Fred Mock and Jack Messer have done. Also Fred says, if you will hold it in the road, Donald, you may have that marvelous "Rutebaker." Reece, think you can continue to haul garbage in a Ford pick-up? Jack did.

Patricia Spease wishes to leave her musical ability to Lynette Jones. Mrs. Corpening will be glad.

Paige Jones wills her popularity to Allen Harbin. Easy, Allen, and do a nice job.

Dell Pfaff wills her fine sense of humor to Wayne Athan. Keep the school lively and happy, Wayne.

Harriett Gilyard wishes to leave her "flirty" ways to Shirley Livengood since she won't be needing them any more. Boys, beware!

Shirley Messer wills her neatness and sweet smile to Libby Bowen. Good luck to you always.

As Dot Hensley and Peggy Edwards have cheered on the team throughout the year, so would they have Carolyn Jarvis and Pat Willis to do. Surely they will do a wonderful job.

"Chigger" Redding and Neal Harper have bestowed upon Reginald Koontz and Anthony Angel the gift of becoming "teacher's pet." Boys, do you think you can swing the deal?

Lou Ann McKinney would like to leave her unquenchable and everlasting smile to Betsy Hauser.

Lynn Rothrock and Jimmy Spease, better dig out your old equipment for you are to be the future landscapers of Lewisville, according to Ronnie Beauchamp and J. D. Brewer. Remember boys, "Practice makes perfect."

Robert Dalton and Bobby Ketner will their electronics course to Bill Cambell and Kenneth Hauser. Keep Mineral Springs rocking, boys.

Ruth Dalton would like for Faye Burton and Lorene Doub to inherit her studious and quiet attitude.

Conrad Huffman and Roy Stewart, if you can't handle this farming deal any better than Peyton Foster and Bill Slater did, you had better quit right now. Incidentally, Roy, you may have Peyton's share of the river bottom.

Roxie Foster wills her ability to catch a man and keep him to Margaret Fulp and Virginia Stewart. Think you girls can be as successful?

"Oh, my aching leg," says W. G. Bodsford, as he calmly rubs his sore knee. Darrell Craft, let's not hear any of that next year, for W. G. has willed you his athletic ability. Keep those joints limber, Darrell.

Elsie Brendle, like it or not, you have achieved the honor of working in the office as bequeathed by Gail Cornelius.

Martha Smith and Judy Porter, speak up and "get in the groove with the chatter." Jo Anne Craft has proved this trait to be quite satisfactory, as she continuously "makes a joyful noise."

Spencer Greene says that if the "state" will widen the Lewisville "speedways," (so as to eliminate all danger) J. W. Holder may inherit his hotrod ability.

Monroe Jones and John Hancock willingly leave the key to the Key Club with Henry Pearce. Nice club.

Betty Hester and Karlene McBride will their ensemble places to Barbara Conrad and Goldie Harrell.

Nelson Huffman and J. E. Shepherd would like to leave their "cat pants" to Billy Coppenbargen and Bert Colbert. So, Billy, see if you can get your feet through those "pegs" and Bert, you find a use for all those buttons.

If Dot Sain and Carolyn Seats can "sling hash" as Johnny Johnson has done, they have a new job at Bill's Kitchen!!

Becky McKaughn and Lillian Riddings, some real art work is to be expected of you now!! You have inherited superior artistic ability from Helen Lyerly and Audrey Kinney.

Since Lewisville is growing used to women drivers, Billy Millsaps and Floyd Mock think that perhaps Marie Stimpson and Mallie Beroth should bring the "Vienna students" to school on the busses.

Lillian Tester and Jo Ann Needham leave their quiet and bashful ways to Barbara Jones and and Peggy Slater.

Oneta Plunkett will leave her Hot Rod Chevrolet to Ann Patterson and Pearl Whitman. Wheel that bus, girls.

Since W. S. Reich loves to tinker with cars he thinks that "Doc" Franklin should follow the hobby closely, too. Who knows? Might be interesting.

Connie Yates, you have an extra science book. After this year, Marie Reid says she is completely through with science.

Rachel Sowers sincerely wishes to will her job as President of the FBLA to Emily Pfaff. Emily, do you think you can?

David Todd's one and only ambition is to be through with school forever!! Travis Craft, what are your views on that? Are you also ambitious?

Patsy Roberson wills her typing speed to Jolene Ziglar and Evelyn Ellis. Don't get a speeding ticket, girls.

Harold Spaugh wills a "good dose of shush!" to Shelby Snow and Frances Jarratt. Take Harold's advice, girls, and remember, "speech is silver, but silence is golden."

Geraldine Rupard says that since Jeweline Rupard already has the necessary equipment, she thinks it would be wonderful for her sewing ability to stay in the family.

Eleanor Dalton wishes to leave her athletic ability to Margaret Clayton. She thinks that the girls should take more interest in sports. Is this agreeable, Margaret?

To our Principal, Mr. H. E. Stimpson, who has so patiently borne with us throughout these "trying" years, we leave our sincere thankfulness and appreciation.

And to the faculty goes our gratitude and admiration for those wonderful leaders who have helped and inspired us to strive to reach our goals.

To the Seniors of '56 we leave our unwavering ability to produce cheerfulness and "sunlight" throughout the high school halls; and remember, Juniors, next year you will be the "big wheels."

And to the sophomores, we leave "This Old House" complete with books, teachers, and school busses, provided that you will "get along" with the teachers, produce bountifully from the Agriculture Shop and Home Economics room, and hold those school busses "between the banks."

Freshmen, here's hoping you will have as much fun in high school as we did. With a few unpracticed manners, and a little time and "experience," you should have quite a time. However, try to get a little education on the side.

Requested by the 1955 Senior Class, this will was signed, sealed, and published on the 27th day of May, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty-five.

CARNATION

RED AND WHITE

In September '43, the hands of time did call
For us to be together, one and all.
In 43, our hands were small
But that worried us not at all.

Our hands were taught to print and write;
To do our homework every night.
Teachers led with faithful hands
Always helping at our command.

Hands have greeted friends anew,
And to others they have bid adieu.
Many sweethearts have held hands
Strolling over the Lewisville lands.

Hands have won and lost our games,
And led us to our highest aims.
Hands together for twelve long years,
Linked with others sorrows, joys, and tears.

Hands unclasped to our future we will go,
And to a future that we do not know.
And may the guiding hand above us all,
Lead us onward, lest we should fall.

Upward and Onward, guided by faithful hands.

CLASS HISTORY

After completing elementary grades rather proud of what we had accomplished we were looking for more success as we entered high school in 1952 to become the graduates of 1955. We were eager to settle down and prepare ourselves to step out into the world of today. Miss People's was the girls' homeroom sponsor and Mr. McGirt was the boys' homeroom sponsor. We were happy to welcome the students from Vienna and a new student, Peyton Foster entered our ranks. During the year we experienced a wonderful time as each of us gathered at Paige Jones' house for a weiner roast.

Our sophomore year was somewhat uneventful but time was swiftly passing by. It has been said about the sophomores "you can tell them, but you can't tell them much." We were glad to welcome our new student, Lillian Tester into our group. Mr. Foil and Mr. Billings were our homeroom teachers. During the year we all gathered at Walker Redding's house to enjoy a hamburger fry.

As juniors we felt proud of the responsibility placed upon our shoulders. We were happy to have Gail Cornelius enter into our midst. Mrs. Southern and Miss Sarbaugh were our homeroom sponsors. One of the most talked about events was class rings and how proud we felt upon the ownership of a class ring. Another thrilling event which attracted a good deal of attention was our junior play "Two Dates for Tonight." Plans were made for the Junior and Senior Banquet and with a lot of hard work, effort, and co-operation, we were able to have a wonderful time at the Robert E. Lee Hotel. Chosen for junior marshals were John Hancock, Chief; Dot Hensley, Johnny Johnson, Paige Jones, J. E. Shepherd, Lou Ann McKinney, J. D. Brewer, Audrey Kinney, and W. S. Reich.

We have reached our goal-- to become seniors. With all the senior privileges, hardships, and events we've counted our twelve years of co-operation and happiness a blessed event. In the beginning time was filled with the election of officers. Our officers were: President, Fred Mock; Co-Vice Presidents, Dell Pfaff and Spencer Greene; Secretary, Peggy Edwards; and Treasurer, Floyd Mock. Paige Jones, our Student Council President has been responsible for a good deal of the school's success this year. We are very proud of our mascots Myra Jennings and Terry Mock and in our opinion they are the cutest ever. Kids' Day, Senior Play, Class Day, Graduation Exercises, and other senior events have required some hard work as well as fun. Helping us fulfill these events were our sponsors, Miss Gibbs and Mr. McGirt.

We are grateful for the privilege of attending this school and obtaining a high school education. We are thankful for the guidance and encouragement of our Principal, Mr. Simpson through our four years. Our parents and teachers also played a leading part in the success of our education. As we receive our diplomas however we must each separate into a different phase of life that lies before us. May we ever remember our high school days, but look forward too for the "brighter days of tomorrow."

JOHN HANCOCK . . . Lewisville back . . .

John Hancock of Lewisville was probably the best passer in the county. It's too bad that some record wasn't kept of his completion average for it was very outstanding. Hancock's passing kept Lewisville as a top contender most of the season and made the Wildcats always a dangerous club.

She Wins Player-of-Week Honors

Peggy Slater Is Lewisville's Offensive Leader

By MARY GARBER

An adding machine isn't standard equipment for a basketball official scorer, but it would have been a handy item last week at Old Richmond. Lewisville girls edged Old Richmond, 100-99.

Bonnie Smith of Old Richmond scored 57 points, Peggy Slater of Lewisville made 47, Carroll Brown of Old Richmond dropped in 36 and Barbara Conrad of Lewisville had 33.

Miss Slater was chosen girls' player-of-the-week for her all-round performance against Old Richmond.

The blonde junior is five feet eight inches tall but she's still not the tallest of the Lewisville players. That honor goes to Barbara Conrad who is six-feet-one.

It's the second time that Miss Slater has won player-of-the-week honors. She was named last year as a sophomore. She started playing basketball in the seventh grade when she was a guard, but she changed to forward the next year. This is her second year on the varsity club.

OUTSIDE OF SPORTS her main hobby is collecting movie star pictures. She lists Marilyn Monroe and Rock Hudson as her favorites. After she graduates from high school, Miss Slater plans to become a secretary. She is taking a commercial course at Lewisville.

Her favorite shot is a hook which she hits consistently. "Mr. Simpson (Harold Simpson, Lewisville principal) taught me how to shoot the hook," said Peggy.

Although she was a top scorer last year under the modified girls' rules, Miss Slater says she likes the book rules better. "Naturally I like it, being able to take my shot for the basket without the guard being able to touch the ball," she admitted.

Old Richmond's high scorers, Bonnie Smith, who has already been player-of-the-week, and Carroll Brown—shared honors with Miss Slater.

GLENN HIGH GIRLS voted Etta Mae Pope as their top performer last week. Miss Pope played a beautiful game against Griffith, scoring 27 points.

The Glenn guards came in for their share of praise too with Pat Crews winning honorable mention for her defensive play.

Another guard, Sylvia Barney of South Fork, got honorable mention for her work in the Old Town game. South Fork came close to upsetting the Old Town girls.

Jean West of Mineral Springs led the Bulldogs' defensive play last week to win special recognition.

Nancy Setliff of Clemmons continued her good play for the Blues. She scored 20 points against Glenn.

Becky Musten has been one of the key figures in Kernersville's success this year. Miss Musten is the playmaker for the undefeated Raiders

Lewisville Girls Win By 100-99

TOBACCOVILLE, Jan. 28—Old Richmond High School suffered a pair of heart-breaking losses to visiting Lewisville tonight, dropping both contests after late rallies had all but pulled them out of the fire.

Clanton Is New to 6-Man Game, but He's a St

By MARY GARBER

Gene Clanton had never played six-man football before last Friday night when he was in the starting lineup for Lewisville. A transfer from Taylorsville High, Clanton had played 11-man football there.

But before the night was over, Clanton had quite an education in six-man ball and Forsyth County fans were talking about his play. Clanton has been chosen six-man football player-of-the-week.

"He really gave us a lot of trouble," said oach Bill Tucker of South Fork. "He was ssing up our attack all night."

ND COACH VANCE McGIRT of Lewisville voted for Clanton. "He did a fine job for us h offense and defense," said McGirt.

didn't score but he played an aggres- nd of football all the way. He took a t out of the hands of two South Fork at one time and there wasn't much ined in his section.

ootball is a fast game," admitted 's a lot more running and more blocking in it than in 11-man ball. But, otherwise, the two games are much the same."

Clanton plays on both offense and defense but says that he likes to play defense better. He plays all three sports but likes football best. He is six feet one inch tall, weighs 165 pounds. He should be a big help to Lewisville athletics for the next few years. He's just a sophomore.

RUNNER-UP IN THE BALLOTING was Clemmons back George Hair, who led the Blues' offense against Badin. Hair runs very hard and scored two touchdowns in the Clemmons win.

Tom Tate of Clemmons also played a bang-up game. A defensive center, Tate wrecked the Badin attack all afternoon and intercepted a pass to go for a touchdown.

Coach Arville Stanley had been worried about his defensive center position but he's not any more. He figures Tate will be able to do the job.

Bobby Rogers scored twice for Old Town as the Panthers opened their season with a win over Yanceyville. Rogers also kicked the conversion after one touchdown and ll for the Panthers.

He's Player-of-Week

Hancock Is Lewisville's Big Threat

By MARY GARBER

The number one problem for Lewisville High opponents this season has been how to stop John Hancock's passing.

Hancock has had an outstanding record of pass completions this year. But against Clemmons last week he varied the routine to catch a pass and score and run for two others as Lewisville beat Clemmons 34-32. What's more, the margin of victory was a dropkick by Hancock.

For his play Hancock has been selected as six-man football player-of-the-week.

John is 17 years old and a senior at Lewisville. He's a first-stringer in football and baseball and plans to go out for basketball this year.

Hancock is a first-line catcher and is rated a fi. prospect for professional baseball. At least one pro scout already has asked John to look him up when he graduates from high school next spring. John isn't at all sure whether he wants to play pro ball or go to college. Right now he favors college for he wants to be a doctor.

"I'd like to be just an ordinary country doctor," said John yesterday. He's a fine student and Lewisville school leaders say he's well able to carry out the hard program of medical study.

Hancock played football at Vienna before going to Lewisville. He started his career as an end and then moved to the backfield last year.

There's no doubt that he is one of the best passers in the county. He's accurate and can throw a football with little effort. Most of Lewisville football victories this year have come through his fine passing game.

Sharing top honors with Hancock last week was Spencer Green of Lewisville who ran and blocked well. "I don't think Spencer missed a block all night," said Coach Vance McGirt.

George Hair played well for Clemmons despite the fact that he was slowed down by injuries sustained in a physical education class soccer game.

Donald Winfrey led the play for Old Richmond in its loss to Old Town.

Wayne Tesh scored once and passed for another Old Town touchdown as the Panthers won the county six-man title.

GENE CLANTON
. . . Lewisville end . . .

Both of Lewisville's ends made the squad. W. G. Bodsford, a 190-pound senior, was one of the best defensive players in the county, a good blocker and pass receiver.

Gene Clanton was the only sophomore to make the squad. He is playing his first season of six-man football but had experience in 11-man ball before coming to Lewisville. He is probably the top pass receiver in the county, snagging the ball frequently from a couple fenders.

THREE MEMBERS OF FOOTBALL TEAM HONORED

Three members of the 195 football team were honored recently by being picked by their opposing players as all-county. John Hancock, back; W. S. Bodsford, Gene Clanton, ends, made the all-star team. Hancock and Bodsford are seniors and Clanton is a sophomore.
